DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 22, 25, and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In claims 22 and 27, the server was not disclosed in the application as originally filed and thus constitutes new matter. In claim 25, the optical fiber being detachable was not disclosed in the application as originally filed and thus is new matter.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 25, lines 2 and 4, respectively, “the optical fiber of said hand mirror shaped monitor” and “the CCD camera provided on the front face of the hand mirror shaped monitor” lack prior antecedents.

Claim 26 appears to recite an additional CCD camera and dental mirror in line 5 and then another dental mirror in line 11 in addition to that previously recited in base claim 24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rakocz (United States Patent No. 6,276,934).

Rakocz discloses a dental mirror 28 and a CCD camera secured thereto in such a manner that the incident portion 24 thereof is located in a part of the surface of the dental mirror. Regarding claim 23, it is noted that base claim 21 only functionally recites the monitor and thus claim 23 is not adding any structural limitations to the claim but rather is merely further defining use of the device. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Claims 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moore (United States Patent No. 3,884,222).

Moore discloses a dental mirror 121 and a CCD camera secured thereto in such a manner that the incident portion 127 thereof is located in a part of the surface of the dental mirror. Regarding claim 23, it is noted that base claim 21 only functionally recites the monitor and thus claim 23 is not adding any structural limitations to the claim but rather is merely further defining use of the device. it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rakocz in view of Spoonhower et al. (United States Patent Publication No. 2002/0118279).

Rakocz discloses the invention essentially as claimed except for the monitor being “hand mirror shaped”. Spoonhower et al. discloses a dental camera having a monitor sized so as to fit in the hand and thus is deemed to be “hand mirror shaped”. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to make the monitor of Rakocz “hand mirror shaped” in view of Spoonhower et al. in order to make the system readily portable.

Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Moore in view of Lake (United States Patent No. 5,951,284).

Moore discloses the invention essentially as claimed except for the air injection hose and the suction hose connected to a vacuum source. Lake discloses a dental mirror having both air and suction hoses to permit suction removal of debris and saliva from the patient’s mouth and the mirror surface (see col. 2, lines 50-54). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the device of Moore with an air injection and a suction hose and vacuum source in view of Lake in order to permit suction removal of debris and saliva from the patient's mouth and the mirror surface.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7-11, 16-18, 28-30 are allowed.

Claim 25 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st and 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 19 January 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has not provided arguments as to how the new claims define over the prior art of record, but merely recites merits of the disclosed invention.

Conclusion

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3732

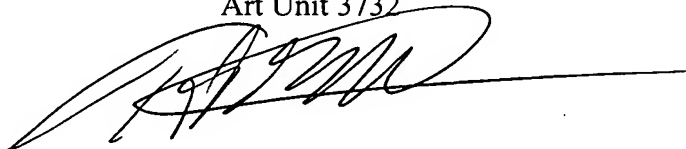

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
